

December Newsletter

2019

Hello dance families!

I hope everyone had a fantastic Thanksgiving, and took some extra time to celebrate all you're thankful for! I successfully cooked my first turkey and got my house decorated for Christmas, so I'm counting this Thanksgiving break a success!

Christmas Cabaret

Our next big event is Christmas Cabaret, coming up Saturday, December 21st! Tickets for Cabaret are on sale NOW! You can find the link to order on the Fusion website or our Facebook page — the link has also been emailed to all dance families. For all audience members age 6 and older, tickets are $8 each; free for kiddos under 6. Presales end on December 13th, and tickets will be dispersed at the studio the week before Cabaret (as long as they are paid for). Checks should be made out to Miranda Beyer.

In the last newsletter, I detailed the costuming requirements for Cabaret — please refer to that if you need a reminder! I also covered it in a video on the Fusion News & Notes group on Facebook. If you ordered dancewear from Rivals, that will be available for pick up at the studio the week of Cabaret. Please remember that all accounts must be up to date by December 13th in order for your dancer to participate in Cabaret.

Costume/Picture Fee

The $50 costume/picture fee for the Spring Show was due December 1st — if you've not paid that already, please submit that at dance classes this week!

Winter Break

The Christmas Cabaret on the 21st will conclude the fall session at the studio. I am very proud of the progress the dancers have made so far this year - I'm excited for them to show you what they've learned, and also to see how much more they'll grow before the Spring Show! We will begin working on our dances for that performance when we return from Winter Break, which will run from December 23rd to January 5th. Classes will resume Monday, January 6th, 2020.

Keep Dancing!
