November 2016

Hi Dance Families!

As we get back into the studio after Fall Break 1, the veteran students know what starts in November — preparations for Christmas Cabaret! For those new to the studio this year, I'm excited to share this tradition with you!

Christmas Cabaret began in 2011 as a dinner show held in the studio. We had several performances for small audiences, with different dances featured at each show. It quickly became a favorite event of dancers and audiences alike. As the studio has grown, so has our audience, and the performance has changed so much in the past couple of years. This year, we will be featuring over NINETY dancers in our performance. With that being said, at the time of the newsletter, our venue is still "To Be Announced". However, the Christmas Cabaret will be held Sunday, December 18th at 1:30pm. Our theme this year is "A Classic Christmas" and will feature a lot of good Christmas "oldies but goodies". Tickets for Christmas Cabaret will go on sale December 1st!

Later this month, there will be Studio Dancewear available for sale, both online and via paper order form. Dancers may need a couple of pieces for the Christmas Cabaret, but these items are also often worn for the spring performance as well. I will let you know what your dancer needs. Be on the lookout for that order!

I am SO glad that most students are coming prepared to class each week! As a note, please be sure your dancer is coming to class with their hair off their face and in clothes appropriate for class (no jeans, no socks.) For those dancers 1st grade and up, please be sure they are bringing their shoes! As they continue to learn and progress, these accommodations make sure the dancer is prepared to work on their movements properly and safely!

With all of the happenings this month and next, expect a few more notes and emails in the coming weeks. I want to be sure everyone stays informed. Please feel free to contact me with questions, but hopefully the newsletter gives you the information you need.

Remember — Fall Break 2 (Thanksgiving Break) is the full week of November 21-25! Enjoy the time with family and Turkey!

—Miranda
